PUBLIC INPUT NEEDED FOR CENTENNIAL PARK MASTER PLAN

WHO: The Conservancy for the Parthenon and Centennial Park
Mayor's Centennial Park Committee
Metropolitan Board of Parks and Recreation

WHAT: Public meeting to solicit input for the design of the Master Plan for Centennial Park.
The objective is to develop a long range plan that transforms the park into a model of sustainable ecological practice and horticultural excellence while respecting the tradition of Centennial Park as a showcase for Nashville's culture, arts and history.

The Centennial Park Master Plan, to be completed over the next 10 months, will include analyses of existing site facilities and conditions, development recommendations, phasing recommendations, and cost estimates.

Centennial Park is on the National Register for Historic Places, the nation's official list of cultural resources worthy of preservation.

WHEN: 5:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, March 9, 2010
Seating is limited, please arrive early.

WHERE: John Seigenthaler First Amendment Center and Freedom Forum
1207 18th Ave South (near Edgehill Avenue)
Nashville, TN

Limited center and street parking available.
The facility is also accessible by MTA Bus Routes 2, 7 & 25.
